
Pain Management

Patient Rights

As a patient you have the right to:

Considerate and respectful care.

Obtain from your physician complete current information concerning your diagnosis, treatment, and prognosis in terms you can understand.

Receive from your physician information necessary to give informed consent prior to the start of any procedure and/or treatment.

Refuse treatment.

Appropriate assessment and management of pain.

Every consideration of your privacy concerning your own medical care program.

Expect that all communications and records pertaining to your care be treated as confidential.

Safe and secure treatment within our facilities.

Obtain information as to any relationship of this facility with any other healthcare and educational institution insofar as your care is concerned.

Expect reasonable continuity of care.

Examine and receive an explanation of your bill regardless of the source of payment.

Expect a speedy response and resolution to any complaints.

Know that the rules and regulations of the healthcare facility apply to your conduct as a patient in the Innovative Pain & Procedural Center.

Advance Directives will not be honored because side effects from procedures are temporary.

You have the right to voice grievances to the office manager.

You have the right to change providers if another provider is available.

Patients Responsibilities

As a patient you have the responsibility to:

- Provide the best of your knowledge, accurate and complete information about present complaints, past illnesses, hospitalizations, medications, and other matters relating to our health.
- Ask questions when you do not understand what has been said about your care or what is expected of you.
- Follow instructions regarding the care, service, or treatment plan developed. Provide a responsible adult to transport you home from the facility and remain with you for 24 hours, if required by your provider.
- Accept consequences for not following the care, service or treatment plan.
- Follow the organization's rules and regulations concerning patient care and conduct.
- Show respect and consideration to the organization's personnel and property.
- Meet financial commitments agreed to with the organization

Signature_____

Date/Time_____